

I do appreciate the Commissioner providing me with the opportunity to provide my comments on a revised Code. I certainly support the efforts of the Commissioner and have but one comment. I understand Rule 8 on Preferential Access as it relates to relatives or someone with whom the lobbyist has financial or business dealings. My concern is with the issue of a "friend." How is friend defined; when does an acquaintance become a friend? I find this area lacks definition.

Steve Irwin
CFN Consultants